WILDOMAR SNOW STORM GREEN WASTE CLEANUP

On Saturday January 10, 2015 between 8:00am and 2:00pm, the City of Wildomar, in partnership with CR&R and Waste Management, is providing waste bins at two locations to give residents the opportunity to dispose of their green waste due to last week's storm which left 10" of snow.

Residents west of I-15 can dispose their downed trees and other storm caused green waste at Marna O'Brien Park, 20505 Palomar Street. Residents east of the I-15 can dispose their debris at the end of La Estrella Road in front of Ronald Reagan School. The west side cleanup is being sponsored at a discount through CR&R and the east side cleanup is being donated by Waste Management.

Residents who are unable to participate in the Saturday January 10th cleanup have until January 17th to call their waste hauler and request an additional green waste bulky item pickup at their residence at no additional cost. The green waste must be bundled, no longer than 3 feet and not weigh more than 50 pounds.

For more information please contact Janet Morales, City of Wildomar at 951-677-7751x210.
